

Sean Bahoshy Appointed to Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado Board of Directors
Nov 25, 2014

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck is pleased to announce the appointment of Sean M. Bahoshy to the board of directors for Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado. Bahoshy is an associate in the Denver office whose practice includes commercial real estate transactions, with an emphasis on finance, lending and hospitality matters.

The new board position is a three year term beginning in January 2015. During his term, Bahoshy will help the organization fundraise and work toward long-term financial viability.

Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado is a statewide nonprofit volunteer program designed to motivate and enable hands-on work in fire and flood restoration, trail building and maintenance, tree planting and re-forestation, among other outdoor opportunities that help safeguard Colorado's natural resources. For more information on Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado, visit <http://www.voc.org>.

---

Meet The Team

Sean M. Bahoshy

Shareholder

T 303.223.1229

sbahoshy@bhfs.com