

Brownstein to Co-Host a Reception At The C5's Annual US Online Gaming Law Forum

Sep 16, 2013

Brownstein will co-host a networking reception at the C5's Annual US Online Gaming Law Forum on Sept. 19 – 20 at The Bellagio in Las Vegas. Nevada, New Jersey and Delaware are the first States of many to legalize online gaming.

Next year will provide a great opportunity for gaming operators and industry service providers, bringing first access to an online market that is expected to reach $10 billion a year nationwide by 2017. C5's annual US Online Gaming Law forum is expecting more than 100 participants and is the only one to focus specifically on online gaming regulation and regulatory compliance, written exclusively for those responsible for applying for and complying with online gaming licenses.
