

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck Announces Year-End Federal Lobbying Revenues

Jan 22, 2013

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck reports $5,465,000 for its fourth-quarter 2012 federal lobbying revenues and a total of $22,545,000 for the year representing a 2.2 percent increase in revenue over 2011.

"We are pleased with our continued growth," said Al Mottur, managing partner of Brownstein's Washington, D.C., office. "The last 12 months were challenging given they combined a Congressional and Presidential election. Still, we picked up the pace and have strong momentum going into 2013. We are already working with several new clients that will keep us engaged in today's pressing issues, including immigration reform, energy, tax, and intellectual property. It's shaping up to be a busy and exciting new year."

The numbers for the fourth quarter of 2012 will be filed on January 22 as part of the quarterly filing requirements under the federal Lobbying Disclosure Act.

Related Practices

- Government Relations