

Brownstein's Rob Kaufmann Receives Community Leadership Award from the Jewish Community Relations Council

Apr 20, 2016

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck is pleased to join the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC), a program of JEWISHcolorado, in recognizing Rob Kaufmann's leadership and commitment to the community with the organization's annual Community Leadership Award.

The JCRC Community Leadership Award honors an individual who demonstrates significant leadership and commitment to both the Jewish and general community. The recipient is someone who has the ability to bring constituents together for advocacy on issues of importance to the Jewish community as well as someone who is committed to the values and principles of the JCRC.

Kaufmann personifies the values of this award. As an active member of the community, he currently chairs the Colorado chapter of the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) and the Colorado Regional Health Information Organization (CORHIO), a nonprofit organization dedicated to serving all of Colorado's health care stakeholders. He also serves on the boards of JEWISHcolorado and the Denver Zoo. Kaufmann is a former chair of HealthONE and the JCRC, and has previously served on the boards of The Colorado Health Foundation and Temple Emanuel.

The Community Leadership Award was presented to Kaufmann at the JCRC Annual Luncheon, held at the Grand Hyatt Hotel earlier today.

Meet The Team

Rob Kaufmann	Shareholder	T 303.223.1176	rkaufmann@bhfs.com
--------------	-------------	----------------	--------------------