The 79th session of the Nevada Legislature will commence on Feb. 6, 2017. Nevada bucked the national trend and once again gave Democrats control of both houses of the legislature.

With that, the 2017 Legislative Session ushers in a new set of challenges and unknowns. With two new majorities, as well as a host of freshman chairs and freshman legislators, this body will work to pass significant legislation all within a significantly changed national political environment led by President-elect Donald Trump.
