

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck Announces its Federal Lobbying Revenues

Jan 20, 2015

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck reports $6,020,000 for its fourth-quarter 2014 federal lobbying revenues and a total of $23,670,000 for the year.

“We finished the year strong and our fourth-quarter figures are up 14 percent over the last quarter of 2013,” said Marc Lampkin, managing partner of Brownstein’s Washington, D.C., office. “Year-over-year we’re up almost seven percent and I attribute this growth to our team’s ability to service our clients combined with notable hires like GOP strategist Barry Jackson, Senate leadership staffer Elizabeth Maier and former House leadership advisor Brian Wild. Also we expanded international work under the leadership of Manny Ortiz and Doug Maguire. We ended the year with six new clients which puts us on track for a strong 2015. We are optimistic about continued growth and success as the new Republican Congress begins its work.”

The numbers for the fourth quarter of 2014 will be filed on January 20 as part of the quarterly filing requirements under the federal Lobbying Disclosure Act.

Meet The Team

Marc S. Lampkin	Shareholder	T 202.652.2341	mlampkin@bhfs.com
-----------------	-------------	----------------	-------------------

Related Practices

- Government Relations