

Brownstein's Martine Wells Joins Board of Directors of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Denver

Jan 28, 2019

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck is pleased to announce that Martine Wells, a shareholder in the firm's Denver office, has joined the board of directors of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Denver. The organization provides comfortable, low-cost housing to out-of-town families needing to be near their hospitalized children.

As part of her three-year term, Wells will assist the organization in its mission to create, find and support programs that improve the health and wellbeing of children.

"I am thrilled to work alongside the talented Ronald McDonald House Charities of Denver team and board to help support families going through a time of crisis and children in need of medical care in the metro area who otherwise would not have access or the ability to stay here to receive treatment," said Wells.
