

Al Mottur Joins Fox News to Speak on the Impact of the Email Investigation on Hillary Clinton's Campaign

Nov 02, 2016

Al Mottur appeared on Your World with Neil Cavuto on Fox News to discuss the recent impact the email investigations have had on the Clinton campaign as election day approaches.

"In terms of polls, I think that we're seeing, in respect to most polls, that there doesn't seem to be much slipping for Secretary Clinton other than what might be the usual tightening in a close race as we get closer to the election," Mottur said. "So far so good, as the polls go, particularly in regards to the battle ground states."
