

Brownstein's Kevin Walsh Appointed as Regional Director for Society of Construction Law North America

Nov 01, 2018

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck is pleased to announce that Kevin Walsh, of counsel in the firm's Denver office, has been appointed as one of the Society of Construction Law North America's regional directors for the Rocky Mountain Region. The objective of the Society of Construction Law North America is to promote education, study and research and its dissemination in the field of construction law and related subjects in the United States of America, Canada, South America and overseas.

With an emphasis on construction law and commercial litigation, Walsh represents a variety of clients in the construction and real estate industries.

For more information about the Society of Construction Law North America, visit <https://www.scl-na.org/>.

Meet The Team

Kevin P. Walsh

Of Counsel

T 303.223.1249

kwalsh@bhfs.com