

Brownstein Employees Help Feed Nevada Families Through St. Vincent's Food Pantry

Nov 07, 2018

Last month, a team from Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck's Reno office packed boxes of food for families in need through Catholic Charities of Northern Nevada and St. Vincent's Food Pantry, the largest food distribution pantry in Nevada. Established in 1995, St. Vincent's Food Pantry serves more than 15,000 people each month and offers non-perishable, canned and packaged food products to individuals and families in need at no cost.

For more information, visit <https://ccsnn.org/>.

Throughout the year, Brownstein organizes Karma volunteer projects so employees and clients as well as their family and friends can give back to the communities in which they live and work. For the firm's 50th anniversary, Brownstein plans to complete 50 Karma Projects in 2018.