Washington, DC

Michael Marn supports Brownstein's Government Relations Department by monitoring and tracking legislative and regulatory developments that impact Brownstein clients. He keeps clients informed on issues impacting their market positioning by providing research projects and drafting briefs. His work spans a wide spectrum of issues from tax and financial policy to technology, cybersecurity and telecommunications.

Before Brownstein, Michael began his career as an assistant at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. While in school, he interned in the Trump White House, another leading legal and government affairs firm in Washington, the Heritage Foundation's Center for Free Markets and Regulatory Reform, Merrill Lynch, and the Republican National Committee.
