

Gaming Associate

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck LLP is seeking a gaming associate with 1-5 years of experience to join its nationally recognized gaming practice in either our Atlantic City or Las Vegas office. This position involves state and local gaming, liquor and business licensing as well as general commercial and corporate transactional work. Ideal candidates will have a demonstrated experience in gaming law and very strong inter-personal skills. Excellent academic performance, strong writing and analytical skills, confidence and the ability to work in a team environment preferred.

Qualified candidates may submit their cover letter, resume, and law school transcript to attorneyrecruiting@bhfs.com. EOE.