

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck Announces Federal Lobbying Revenues

Apr 20, 2015

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck reports $5,830,000 for its first-quarter 2015 federal lobbying revenues, a six percent increase over the first quarter of 2014.

“We had a strong finish to 2014 and continue our pattern of growth with the addition of seven new registrations last quarter,” said Marc Lampkin, managing partner of Brownstein’s Washington, D.C., office.

The numbers for the first quarter of 2015 will be filed on April 20 as part of the quarterly filing requirements under the federal Lobbying Disclosure Act.
