

Melissa Kuipers Appointed to the Colorado Business Committee for the Arts Board of Directors

May 16, 2013

Melissa Kuipers, an attorney and policy advisor with Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck's government relations group, was recently appointed to the Board of the Colorado Business Committee for the Arts. As a board member, Kuipers will combine her passion for the arts with her professional experience to develop business and cultural opportunities to benefit the entire state of Colorado. For the past two years she has been the lead lobbyist for CINEMA (Colorado Innovators of New Entertainment, Media & Arts) and worked with the Colorado Legislature and Governor's Office to pass legislation to expand and grow Colorado's movie, television and video game incentive and loan guarantee programs.

The Colorado Business Committee for the Arts (CBCA) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that serves as a catalyst for Colorado's business community to leverage the arts for economic vitality. CBCA is a member organization of leading companies that have a philanthropic commitment to the arts and recognize the link between cultural vitality and creative and innovative success. Over 120 metro area businesses, representing 70,000 employees, are members of CBCA. For more information about The Colorado Business Committee for the Arts, visit www.cbca.org.
