

Brownstein Tax Alert: Up to 25% of Tax-Exempt Organizations Predicted to Lose Tax Exemptions on May 15, 2010
May 07, 2010

Article

Brownstein Tax Alert, May 7, 2010

The tax exempt status of up to an estimated 400,000 charities, trade associations and membership groups may be revoked automatically on May 15, 2010, due to failure by those organizations to timely file annual informational tax returns. Click to read more about the Tax Code provision in the Pension Protection Act of 2006 that could cause an organization's exempt status will be revoked.

Meet The Team

Gregory W. Berger	Shareholder	T 303.223.1158	gberger@bhfs.com
-------------------	-------------	----------------	------------------

Andrew C. Elliott	Shareholder	T 303.223.1154	aelliott@bhfs.com
-------------------	-------------	----------------	-------------------

Related Practices

- Tax