

Greg Vallin Appointed to Everitt Real Estate Center Board

Oct 22, 2013

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck is pleased to announce that Gregory A. Vallin has been appointed to serve on the Everitt Real Estate Center board of directors. In this new role, he will serve as director providing strategic direction to the board.

The Everitt Real Estate Center's mission is to produce and disseminate knowledge and to provide applied research solutions that address current and future real estate related needs of Northern Colorado, the Front Range of Colorado and the West. The Center also aims to equip Colorado State University students, Center members, and the local community-at-large by developing real estate educational programs that supplement standard academic and industry training initiatives.
