

Greg Janssen Joins National Kidney Foundation's Board of Advisors

Feb 28, 2019

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck is pleased to announce that Greg Janssen, an associate in the firm's Denver office, has joined the National Kidney Foundation's board of advisors in Colorado.

The National Kidney Foundation is the leading organization in the U.S. dedicated to the awareness, prevention and treatment of kidney disease. In his role, Greg will support the National Kidney Foundation's local office serving Colorado, New Mexico, Montana and Wyoming.

Greg's involvement will include event planning, fundraising, representing the National Kidney Foundation within the community and helping to recruit additional supporters and volunteers.
