

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck Reports Federal Lobbying Revenues

Oct 19, 2011

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck continued its quarterly growth in its federal lobbying practice, reporting $5,740,000 for third-quarter federal lobbying revenues. This represents a six percent increase over last quarter.

“We’re pleased to enter the final quarter with continued momentum behind our federal lobbying efforts,” said Al Mottur, managing partner of Brownstein’s Washington, DC, office. “Our revenue increase over the previous quarter highlights the firm’s success in the nation’s most critical arenas, including health care, telecommunications, financial services, natural resources and homeland security, among others. Our bipartisan approach and our experienced group of professionals continue to pay dividends for our clients across numerous industries.”

The numbers for the third quarter of 2011 will be filed on October 20 as part of the quarterly filing requirements under the federal Lobbying Disclosure Act.
