

Brownstein Announces Its Federal Lobbying Revenues

Jan 22, 2018

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck reports $8,360,000 for its fourth-quarter 2017 federal lobbying revenues and a total of $29,175,000 for the year. The total revenues in 2017 represent a 14 percent increase, year-over-year from 2016.

“We saw a significant jump in the fourth-quarter of 2017 because our bipartisan team was highly sought-after by companies to navigate the tax reform debate,” said Elizabeth Gore, Brownstein’s government relations department chair. “We anticipate an active 2018 especially in areas like healthcare, energy, infrastructure and financial services.”

The numbers for the fourth quarter of 2017 were filed as part of the quarterly filing requirements under the federal Lobbying Disclosure Act.

Related Practices

- Government Relations