

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck Reports Federal Lobbying Revenues

Apr 19, 2013

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck reported $5,330,000 for first-quarter federal lobbying revenues.

“We signed 12 new federal lobbying clients in the first quarter and are looking forward to a strong year,” said Al Mottur, managing partner of Brownstein’s Washington, DC office. “In particular, we are very excited about our new Energy, Environment and Resource Strategies group, which has already produced a number of new projects for our firm. We are also very busy with a variety of immigration issues.”

Information about Brownstein's new Energy, Environment and Resource Strategies group can be found at: Energy, Environment & Resource Strategies.

The numbers for the first quarter of 2013 will be filed on April 22 as part of the quarterly filing requirements under the federal Lobbying Disclosure Act.
