

People

People spotlight

Aaron Hyatt is co-chair of the Real Estate Department of Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, where he is proud to be a leader of the firm's premier real estate transaction practice. His practice focuses on the acquisition, financing, leasing, development and disposition of various real estate assets, including apartment and office buildings, hotels, shopping centers, casinos and mixed-use projects.

When Lisa Hogan helps a company avoid a legal problem, she considers it to be one of her best achievements. But, when litigation is necessary, she's the strategic, creative attorney you want on your side. Few employment litigators in the country can match Lisa's extensive trial experience and knowledge of how business issues play out in court.

Brad Herrema's forte and long-term focus include strategic water supply planning, water right permitting and regulatory compliance, litigation including water right adjudications, transactional negotiations and due diligence, as well as water quality, environmental and species concerns spanning every aspect of California and national water law. For nearly 15 years, Brad has been involved in many of the nation's most significant and complex water matters, predominantly in the western United States.

Craig Hemenway speaks the language of technology. Brownstein's lead patent attorney for high tech matters, he works with both startups and major corporations, including a Fortune 50 technology client, managing complex portfolios of patent assets. Craig's practice focuses on helping clients in the technology sector develop strategies that enable them to leverage intellectual property assets to achieve marketplace prominence.

Insights

Presentation

Why Artificial Intelligence Matters in eDiscovery Feb 15, 2019

Client Alert

How Can Developers Avoid Problems Before They Arise? Feb 15, 2019

Presentation

SGMA Fee Issues: How to Fund GSA Implementation, GSP Projects, and How to Avoid Prop 218 Pitfalls Feb 12, 2019