

Brownstein is honored to be included among the top five firms on The American Lawyer's 2019 A-List: Female Equity Partner Scorecard.

Brownstein Ranked Fifth on The American Lawyer's 2019 Female Equity Partner Scorecard; Receives Nod from Working Mother

Jul 30, 2019

Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck was recently recognized by The American Lawyer for its gender diversity efforts. The firm ranked fifth on The American Lawyer's 2019 A-List: Female Equity Partner Scorecard, which ranks the Am Law 200 by the percentage of women in their equity tiers. Brownstein ranked No. 5 in the country due to the fact that women make up 28 percent of the firm's equity shareholders.

The firm's ranking advanced three spots from the publication's 2018 A-List: Female Equity Partner Scorecard. To see The American Lawyer's rankings, click here.

The American Lawyer accolade comes just as Brownstein was recognized by Working Mother on its 2019 "Best Law Firms for Women" list. Brownstein was among 60 law firms that earned spots on Working Mother's list for its best practices in recruiting, retaining, promoting and developing women lawyers.
