

Extraordinary Estate and Gift Tax Planning Window Might Close Before the End of the Year
Jul 02, 2012

Article

Brownstein Client Alert, July 2, 2012

The very favorable estate and gift tax planning environment that currently exists could be nearing an end. This Client Alert will have special interest to anyone who has a sizable estate and wants to minimize their family's exposure to estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer taxes.

To continue reading, please click above.

Meet The Team

George Short	Shareholder	T 805.882.1441	gshort@bhfs.com
--------------	-------------	----------------	-----------------

Related Practices

- Tax