

Client Alert: State Attorneys General
Oct 31, 2008

Article

Brownstein Client Alert, October 31, 2008

A growing number of regulatory, policy and legal issues that confront businesses on a national level are being generated by state jurisdictions and particularly by State Attorneys General. State Attorneys General continue to expand their efforts in conducting high profile investigations and litigation of various industries and businesses to achieve policy objectives which are often coordinated at the national level.

Click to read more from our Litigation team, including information on consumer product safety and strategies and solution for the Attorneys General.

Meet The Team

Hal Stratton

Shareholder

T 505.724.9596

hstratton@bhfs.com

Related Practices

- Litigation